

This modular rug is crafted by sewing with Punto Zigzag 30x30 cm wool felt elements.

Each element is previously decorated with a variable number of wool cords.

Then, the elements are machine-embroidered with a coloured thread to create a thick netting that might recall the Vienna Straw weaving.

The border features the Punto Pettine.

The rug is produced with a single layer of felt.